

Entry test

UNIT 1

Sports and Free Time

Communicative functions

- Talking about sports, hobbies and free time activities.
- Describing pictures using prompt questions.

Grammar

- Present simple.
- Present continuous.
- State verbs.
- Verbs + infinitive or -ing form.

Vocabulary

- Free time activities.
- Sports and venues.

Reading and Writing

- Identifying general ideas and details in opinion and factual texts about extreme sports.
- Writing an email describing a place to visit.

Intercultural skills

- Talking about extreme sports worldwide.
- Identifying and ensuring healthy life and promoting well-being.
- Life skills: Learning to be more self-confident.

UNIT 2

People and relationships

Communicative functions

- Talking about the evolution of friends and family relationships.
- Describing past actions and actions that have been happening lately.

Grammar

- Past simple.
- Present perfect simple and continuous.
- Subject and object questions.

Vocabulary

- Friendship and relationship expressions.
- Collocations and Phrasal verbs with up.

Reading and Writing

- Identifying general ideas and details in opinion and factual texts about people and relationships.
- Writing an online message.

Intercultural skills

- Talking about famous people worldwide.
- Identifying and describing key ideas about volunteering.
- Life skills: Considering other people's needs and preferences.

Mid-term exam

UNIT 3

How are you feeling

Communicative functions

- Describing feelings and emotions.
- Talking about actions occurring before an early past action.
- Talking about past habits which do not happen anymore.

Grammar

- Past perfect simple and continuous.
- Used to / would.

Vocabulary

- Feelings and emotions.
- Life events.
- Phrasal verbs with up.

Reading and Writing

- Identifying general ideas and details in opinion and factual texts about emotions.
- Writing a brief biography.

Intercultural skills

- Recognizing self-esteem theories.
- Identifying and describing ideas to deal with difficult situations.
- Life skills: Seeing things in a positive way.

UNIT 4

A changing society

Communicative functions

- Talking about your free time activities.
- Expressing abilities and lack of abilities.

Grammar

- The passive. (Have/get something done).

Vocabulary

- Jobs and professions.
- Crime and criminals.
- Phrasal verbs with come.

Reading and Writing

- Identifying general ideas and details in passages about crime and punishment.
- Writing a book review.

Intercultural skills

- Talking about crimes and punishments in Victorian Britain.
- Identifying and describing ideas about communicating and cooperating.
- Life skills: Working in a team.

UNIT 5

Fashion and design

Communicative functions

- Talking about fashion and personal styles.
- Expressing obligation, necessity, and advice in present and past tense.
- Making deductions based on facts and opinions.

Grammar

- Modal verbs for obligation, necessity advice.
- Modal verbs for deduction certainty.
- Modal verbs in the past.

Vocabulary

- Fashion and clothes.
- Clothes shopping.
- Expressions and phrasal verbs with keep.

Reading and Writing

- Identifying general ideas and details in opinion and factual texts about fashion.
- Writing an online review of a shop.

Intercultural skills

- Talking about fashion and design around the world.
- Identifying and describing sustainable consumption and production patterns.
- Life skills: Dealing with peer pressure.

Final exam