

UNIT 1

Communication

- Greeting someone
- Introducing yourself
- Saying goodbye
- Naming countries and continents
- Identifying country of origin and nationality
- Asking about country of origin and nationality
- Asking for and giving personal information about country of origin and nationality
- Identifying classroom objects
- Asking about classroom objects in the class
- Following teacher's instructions
- Asking for personal information
- Providing personal information
- Providing personal information in a hotel context
- Asking someone to do something

Grammar

- Verb be + Subject Pronouns
- Contracted Subject Pronoun + Verb be
- Verb be in confirmation and information questions
- Verb be in negative answers
- Possessive Adjectives: my, your, etc.
- Verb be in affirmative, negative and interrogative forms (+? -)
- Subject Pronouns

Pronunciation

- Vowel sounds
- Word stress
- /ə/, consonant sounds /tʃ/, /ʃ/ , /dʒ/, word stress
- /əʊ/, /u:/, /ɑ:/, the alphabet, sentence stress

Vocabulary

- Days of the week
- Numbers: 0-20
- Continents
- Countries and nationalities More numbers: 21-100
- High numbers
- Classroom language
- The alphabet: Spelling your name, providing acronyms
- Hotel vocabulary
- Identifying yourself on the phone
- Social English phrases

Culture

- Geography
- Filling out a language school application form
- Completing a visa application
- Checking in at a hotel

UNIT 2

Communication

- Naming things/objects
- Describing the things/ objects on your table, in your study, in your bag
- Asking about things/ objects
- Providing characteristics of objects and or possessions
- Describing differences between American and British English
- Expressing feelings
- Giving orders/instructions
- Interpreting signs

Grammar

- Singular and plural nouns a/an, plurals
- Regular plurals Irregular plurals
- Adjectives Opposite adjectives
- Opinion adjectives
- Modifiers: very/really, quite
Adjective + noun
- Verb have to express possession
- Affirmative and negative orders
Let's (inclusive imperative)

Pronunciation

- Final -s and -es
- Long and short vowel sounds
- Linking

Vocabulary

- Things
- Prepositions of place: in, on, under
- Colors Adjectives
- Appearance adjectives
- American icons
- Feelings

Culture

- American icons
- Safe driving.
- Traffic signs

✓ First Achievement Test

UNIT 3

Communication

- Talking about how people really are
- Expressing what you like and don't like about your country
- Describing what you do during the day /at night
- Naming jobs/ professions/ occupations
- Asking about jobs
- Describing jobs
- Asking information questions with verb be and other verbs in present
- Showing interest on what people say
- Giving a profile of yourself

Grammar

- Present simple in affirmative (+) and negative (-) statements in contracted and uncontracted forms
- Third person in affirmative (+) and negative (-) statements in contracted and uncontracted forms
- The spelling rules for the he/she/ it forms
- Present simple in confirmation and information questions
- Questions words: what, who, when, where, why, and how.
- Word order in questions with verb be and other verbs

Pronunciation

- Third person -s
- /ɜ:/ and /ə/
- Sentence stress

Vocabulary

- Verb phrases
- Jobs
- Question words

Culture

- Small talk
- Going to the coffee shop

UNIT 4

Communication

- Buying coffee
- Telling the time
- Talking about celebrities' families
- Asking about possessions
- Talking about your family: names, ages, jobs, etc.
- Describing a typical day
- Describing routines
- Asking about routines
- Writing about your favorite day of the week
- Describing frequency of activities/habits
- Describing lifestyles

Grammar

- Present of verb be and other verbs in affirmative, negative and interrogative statements (+ - ?)
- Present simple with question words
- Possessive's
- Whose....?
- Differentiating between Who's and Whose
- Prepositions of time (at, in, on)
- Prepositions of place (at, in, to)
- Prepositions of place and movement
- Position of adverbs
- Expressions of frequency

Pronunciation

- Final -s and -es
- Long and short vowel sounds
- Linking

Vocabulary

- Coffee shop menu
- Telling the time: The British and the American way
- Social English phrases
- The family:
- Nuclear family
- Extended family
- In-law family
- Step family
- Daily routine
- Months
- Adverbs of frequency
- Expressions of frequency

Culture

- Going to the coffee shop
- Famous people
- Life in the Blue zones

✓ Final Achievement Test